SRSB Condemns Bomb Outrage in Pristina

PRISTINA---SRSG Hans Haekerrup today condemned the bomb attack in the centre of Pristina that killed one person and injured four others.

“This is an outrage”, Mr. Haekkerup said. “I am deeply saddened by the continued violence in Kosovo despite our best efforts to bring peace and security to all people”.

Mr. Haekkerup said he was awaiting a full report of the investigation into the incident, which occurred near the premises occupied by the FRY Committee on Kosovo.
