

Strategic Planning & National Ownership

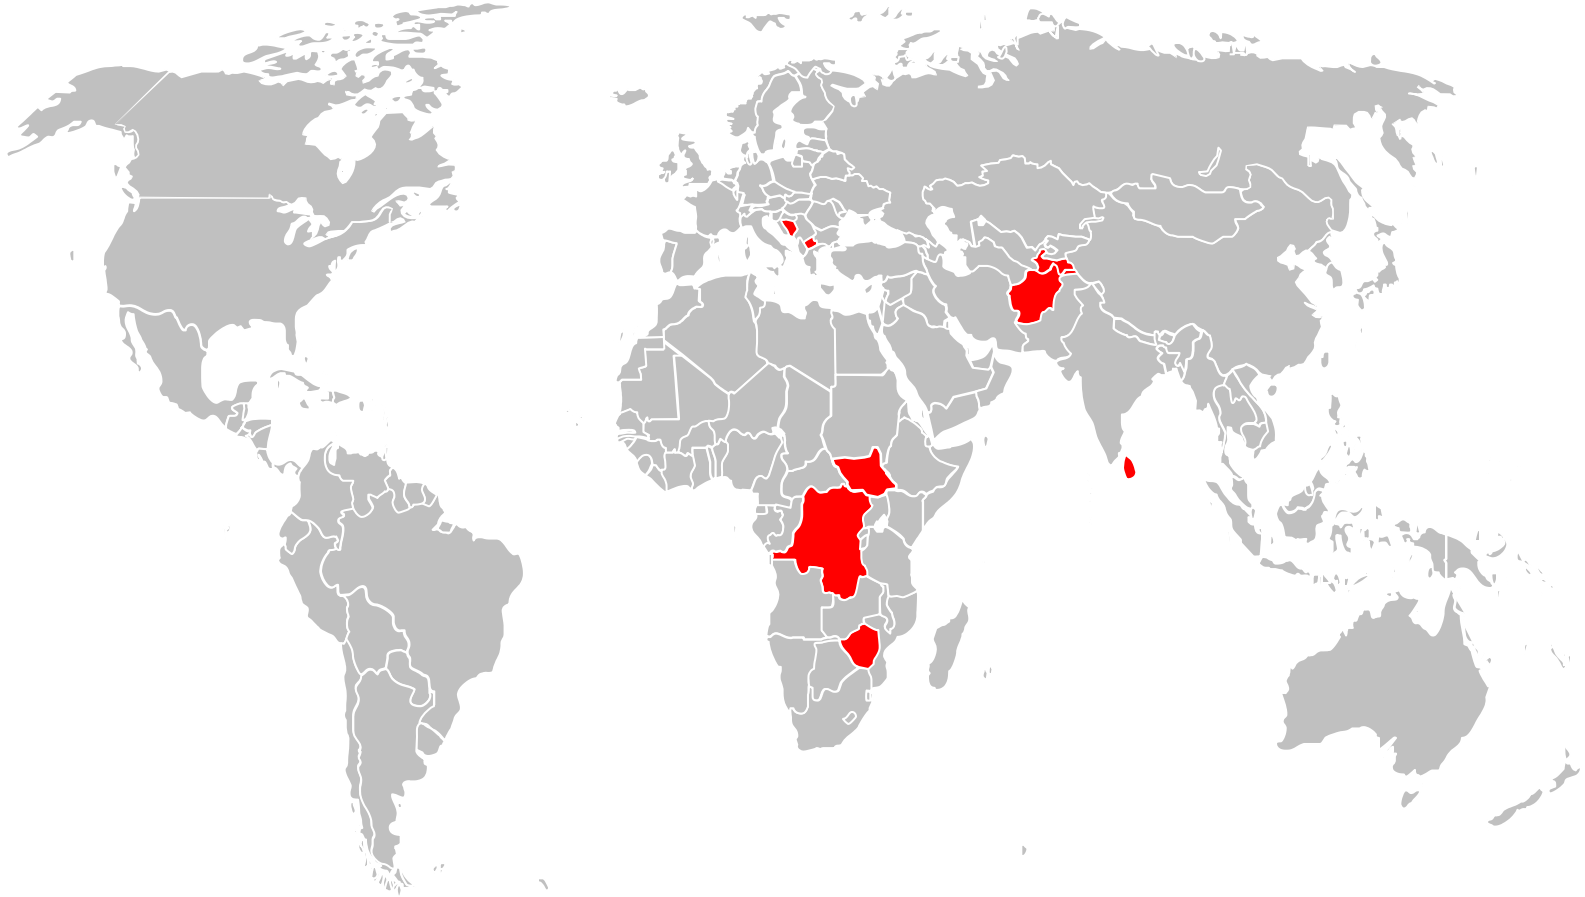

National Directors' Meeting
Geneva, 5 February 2019

Presentation Outline

- Unpacking ‘national ownership’
- Strategic planning and national ownership
- Regional collaboration examples

GICHD Global Strategic Planning Support

National Ownership: What's in a name?

National commitment, interest & leadership

Accurate, transparent and timely reporting

Established mine action institutional architecture

National Ownership

National budgetary support

Clear and transparent national strategic orientation in place

Necessary resources (financial, human and technical) dedicated

Strategic Planning & National Ownership

Developing Mine Action Strategies

Broad & diverse stakeholder participation

Ministry participation

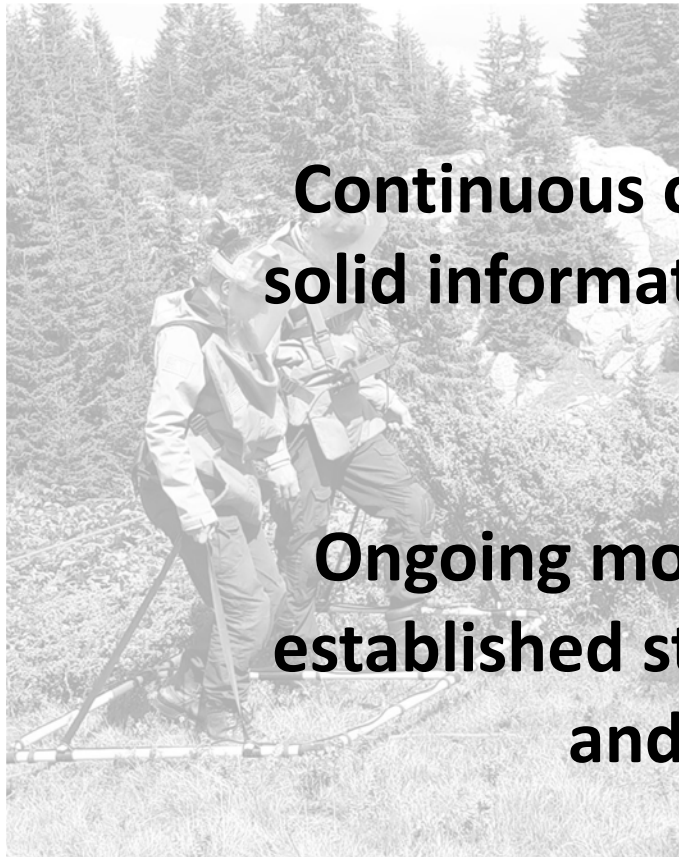

Participatory context analysis

Implementing Mine Action Strategies

Implementing Mine Action Strategies

Continuous coordination and solid information management

Ongoing monitoring against established strategy indicators and targets

Reviewing and Improving Mine Action Strategies

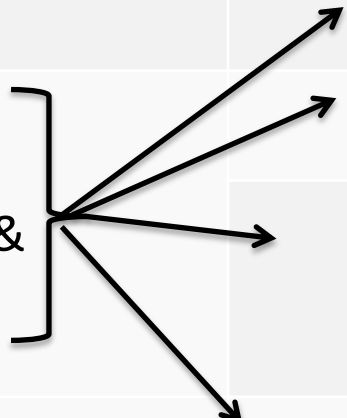

Reviewing & Improving Mine Action Strategies

Information updated, reliable and available

Strategic Planning & National Ownership

Strategic planning: results	National ownership: key criteria
Ministry participation ✓ Greater national awareness & government buy-in ✓	National commitment & leadership National budgetary support Established mine action institutional architecture Dedicated resources (financial, human and technical)
National strategy developed according to good practice ✓	Clear and transparent national strategic orientation in place
Information updated, reliable and available ✓	Accurate, transparent and timely reporting

Strategic Planning in Regional Cooperation Programme

June 2016: three-day workshop on Strategic Planning in Beirut, Lebanon in partnership with Lebanon Mine Action Centre (LMAC).
Nine national programmes and NGOs from MENA region

Strategic Planning in Regional Cooperation Programme

May 2017: three-day Strategic Planning Workshop in Cairo, Egypt, facilitated by LMAC in Arabic

- May 2015: Arabic
- September 2018: Russian
- All versions available with GICHD

Åsa Massleberg
GICHD Advisor, Strategic Management

