

CONCEPT NOTE
HIGH-LEVEL MEETING OF MINISTERS IN CHARGE OF REFUGEES
IN THE GREAT LAKES REGION

5-7 March 2019
Speke Resort Munyonyo, Uganda

1. As of October 2018 over 11 million people are uprooted in the Great Lakes region¹ due to armed conflict and insecurity. This number is composed of 7.2 million internally displaced persons and 4.4 million refugees and asylum seekers originating from Burundi, the Central African Republic, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Rwanda and South Sudan.
2. Continued high levels of new forced displacement combined with the protracted presence of refugees in the region constitutes a source of tension and mistrust between neighboring countries. In line with the decision of the Eighth high-level meeting of the Regional Oversight Mechanism (ROM) of the Peace, Security and Cooperation (PSC) Framework for the Democratic Republic of the Congo and the region, the United Nations Special Envoy for the Great Lakes region and the International Conference on the Great Lakes Region (ICGLR) together with UN partners and others have been conducting consultations on ways to raise attention regarding the scope and gravity of the displacement situation, and to agree and implement comprehensive and durable solutions, notably for cases of protracted displacement.
3. On 8 October 2018, the Ninth high-level meeting of the ROM held in Kampala, Uganda, encouraged the ongoing consultations between the UN Special Envoy and ICGLR towards the convening of a regional Ministerial level consultation to discuss concrete steps to find durable solutions for protracted displacement, and endorsed H.E. President Yoweri Kaguta Museveni of Uganda to lead efforts to address displacement in the region.
4. The regional Ministerial consultation on Displacement will be held in line with the Global Compact on Refugees adopted by the United Nations General Assembly in December 2018 as a blueprint guiding refugee responses. The regional Ministerial consultation on Displacement will also seek alignment to the 2019 African Union ‘Year of Refugees, Returnees and Internally Displaced Persons in Africa: Towards Durable Solutions to Forced Displacement’.

¹ For this purpose of this consultation we define the Great Lakes region as the 13 signatory countries of the Peace, Security and Cooperation Framework Agreement (2013).

Objectives

5. The objectives of the Ministerial consultation are as follows:
 - a. Raise the visibility of the scale of the displacement crisis in the Great Lakes region and the need to address the most acute life-saving needs.
 - b. Seek commitment from the countries of the region:
 1. To prevent violence and armed conflict as a driver and root cause of forced displacement.
 2. To reinvigorate existing Tripartite Commissions for the voluntary safe and dignified repatriation of refugees.
 3. To implement local integration of protracted refugees and their progressive inclusion into national systems as a key and viable durable solution.
 - c. Request countries of the region, with the support of United Nations Country Teams, World Bank and partners, to develop socio-economic local integration plans benefiting host communities and protracted refugees creating a win-win situation focused on local development, self-reliance and resilience.
 - d. Seek agreement from the countries of the region to develop a regional strategy for durable solutions for refugees.

6. On the first two days Government experts and participants will review the displacement situation in the Great Lakes region. Participants are expected to review and agree on concrete recommendations for comprehensive and durable solutions, particularly for protracted caseloads of refugees with a focus on local integration in line with the Comprehensive Refugee Response Framework (CRRF).
7. On the third day the Ministers will review the displacement situation in the Great Lakes region, review the recommendations made by the experts and adopt a Declaration.
