

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

22nd International Meeting of Mine Action National Programme Directors and United Nations Advisors 5-8 February 2019

UNMAS

The United Nations Mine Action Service (UNMAS) provides global leadership, working with the United Nations system to prevent landmines, improvised explosive devices and other explosive remnants of war from causing thousands of deaths and injuries each year. We are people-driven, attentive to the need of affected communities and technically proficient.

NDM-UN

The 22nd International Meeting of National Mine Action Programme Directors and United Nations Advisers (NDM-UN) will take place from 5 to 8 February 2019 at the Palais des Nations. The Meeting's theme is "Step Up for Mine Action" and provides an opportunity for delegates to network, exchange best practices and lessons learnt in response to current trends in mine action.

What we offer: A unique opportunity for volunteers to learn about mine action with more than 500 professionals, during one of the most important and exciting events of the year happening at the United Nations in Geneva.

Responsibilities: UNMAS is looking for motivated volunteers to assist in registration, logistics, reporting, welcoming of participants, and overall organization of the meeting.

How to Apply: Interested volunteers are requested to send their CV with a brief motivation letter. Applications should be sent to unmasgeneva@un.org before 7 January 2019.

Orientation before NDM-UN Meeting: Please note that a short orientation session will be held two weeks before the meeting to inform volunteers of expected tasks and deliverables.
