UNSOS MARKET SURVEY REQUEST

Kenyan Contingent Rotation in January-February 2019

1. GENERAL. The Government of Kenya decided to conduct the rotation of their contingent in Somalia under LOA by road. In order to prepare an LOA for this movement, the MCS requests a market survey for the surface transportation of the contingent personnel between Kenya and Somalia by commercial coaches and personal luggage by trucks with the sufficient security escort.
2. REQUIREMENT. Surface transportation for the rotation of 2,431 Kenyan Contingent personnel between Nairobi, Kenya and Dhobley, Somalia .

Notes to the requirement:

1. The transporter is responsible for the sufficient security escort between Kenya and the Unit Location in Somalia, food and water supply (3 meals per day) for all the passengers.
2. Military personnel are entitled to 100 kg/person of personal baggage. Please note that this charter will include the carriage of unloaded military weapons and small arms ammunition (Class 1.4s), as part of the baggage entitlement, which must be properly documented and declared.
3. Total weight and volume will include some allocation for unit stores.
4. Reverse rotation is NOT acceptable.
5. Insurance: At a minimum, the transporter would provide the following coverage:
 - a. Comprehensive third-party liability insurance, including passenger's legal liability, sufficient to cover all persons and all cargo authorized by the UN to be transported on the vehicle, and protecting the UN and the Transporter against claims for bodily injury or death and property damage up to a combined minimum of $ 50 million per occurrence.
 - b. Basic war risk liability insurance, including third party liability, for a minimum amount of fifty million dollars (US currency) (US $ 50,000,000.00), including hijacking and confiscation for the area of operations. The passengers must be insured for a minimum of one hundred and thirty-five thousand dollars (US currency) (US $ 135,000.00).
 - c. Worker's compensation insurance.
6. The transporter is responsible for obtaining any authorization required for this requirement from Governmental and other responsible authorities.
